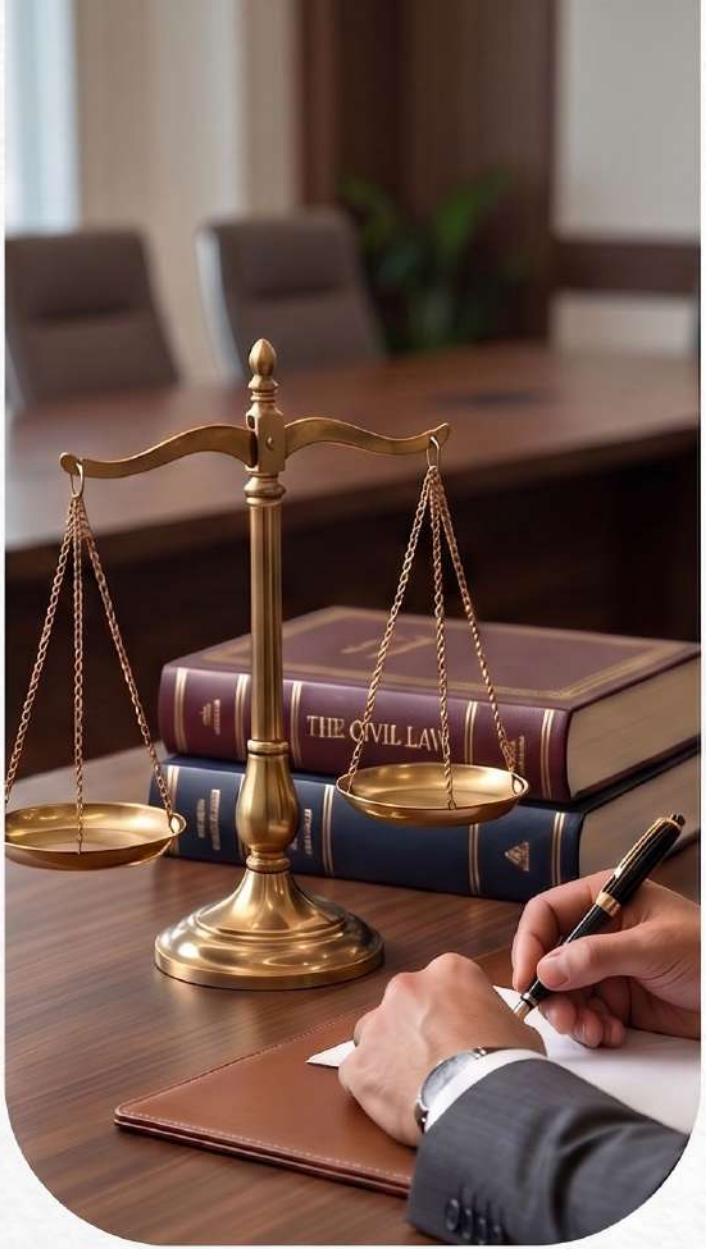
MOHAMMED AL-TABAN COMPANY
FOR LEGAL MEDIATION

We build our touch in service with professionalism carried by professional passion: to create added value for the client that meets his needs, and fulfil-lis his legitimate desires.



QUOTES ABOUT THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Law is an independent, free profession that participates with the judicial authority in achieving justice, and contributes to providing legal prevention and protection in our daily life actions, transactions, and business practices.

Al-Bayhaqi narrated from Abdullah bin Jafar that he said: Ali bin Abi Talib disliked dispute, so if he had a dispute, he would appoint Aqeel bin Abi Talib. When Aqeel grew old, he appointed me.

One of the wise men says: If recourse to court is the last remedy, then recourse to a lawyer may be the first.

Voltaire says: The greatest human act is restoring justice to those who have lost it.

A Dedicated Team for All Your Needs

Excellent Service for People of Determination

Mission

Our focus is to protect our clients, which is our core attention and professional purpose. We meet the needs and desires of individuals, businesses, and entities achieving for them legal protection in innovative, professional, and diverse ways, to safeguard their interests and standing.

What Distinguishes Us

We aim to be among the professional entities operating with international and national standards in specialized consultation. We have built our expertise from the ground up, adding the value of our practice to our exceptional client segment.

Our Legal Practices:

1 Legal Manasement

It is considered one of the most important departments in private and governmental entities due to its prominent role in performing legal oversight and preventative functions, and monitoring compliance with legislations and regulations issued and not changed within the establishment.

Therefore, we offer our comprehensive and integrated services to our public and private company clients, with the possibility of agreeing upon and presenting them through annual contracts, including:

A- Drafting and reviewing contracts, agreements, and letters.
B- Legal representation in meetings, and before judicial and arbitral bodies.
C- Case management, strategy development, and receiving judicial notifications for cases against the company.
D- Legal consultations and studies for the establishment's business.
E- Financial claims management and collection.
F- Compliance management with regulations and their review.
G- Labor investigations.
H- Everything required by the legal department, which we execute via an annual contract.

2 E-commerce

Digital technology is the promising future that we witness in all fields, as the public and private sectors accelerate to keep pace with it and conduct business through it.

The role of merchants stands out for the ease of reaching a large segment of consumers at the lowest operating costs.

Therefore, we provide our clients and success partners with legal consultations on market entry mechanisms, valid practices according to international regulations, and the drafting of the Unified Framework Agreement Agreement (Privacy Policy, Framework Agreement (Terms and Conditions), Validity of Signatures, ... etc.) As well as definition of consumer rights and how to obtain them ... etc.)

3 Companies and Entrepreneurship

When establishing an institution or company, it is required to resort to the law and a consultant to verify legal soundness.
Indeed, even in feasibility studies, legal consultations are taken regarding the soundness of the project. From this perspective, in consultations, studies, the legal soundness of the establishment, continuation, and expansion of the work from a legal standpoint, we provide our business men and women and establishment clients with the following:

A- Choosing the optimal framework for the project: an institution, or a company according to the commercial or professional companies' law, and completing establishment procedures.
B- Corporate conversion, merger and acquisition deals, and restructuring.
C- Legal supervision of business development and expansion.
D- Public offering.
E- Partners' decisions.
F- Commercial franchise.
G- Commercial agencies.
H- Bankruptcy.
I- Judicial custodianship.
J- Corporate liquidation.
K- Due diligence.
L- Everything required by the commercial entity.

4 Commercial Business (Commercial Law)

The law divides commercial business activities performed by merchants into original activities, which are either individual or by way of undertaking (repetition, practice, and professionalism). And accessory and mixed acts.

Commercial acts are based on two elements: trust and credit. Without a doubt, they are carried out swiftly to seize the best opportunities that yield the highest gains for the business owner. This speed also requires verification in terms of the legal soundness of the opportunities, so that the business owner's peace of mind is achieved, and their confidence in the law regarding what they increases, so that the law does not invalidate them, leading the opportunity to waste and loss.

Therefore, in this scope and legal aspects, we provide our clients with: with: consultations, procedures, establishment and licensing, litigation, etc.

OUR LEGAL PRACTICES :

5 FINANCE AND INVESTMENT

The finance sector in the United Arab Emirates has seen remarkable development and demand from its beneficiaries and investors due to the credit facilities provided by those banks, finance companies, and all funders in real estate, leasing, consumer, and personal financing, etc.

So, we offer our clients the following:
